

MeltingPotBooks is a children's bookstore that broadens public awareness in the cannon of children's multicultural literature. MeltingPotBooks equipts families, schools and communities with resources that stimulate a positive self-image, diversity awareness, cultural appreciation and conflict resolution.

To host a book party
To get book recommendations or just buy children's books, call Christina @ 267-974-1158